Our charity

We're Breast Cancer Now, the research and support charity. We're the place to turn to for anything and everything to do with breast cancer. However you're experiencing breast cancer, we're here.

The brightest minds in breast cancer research are here. Making life-saving research happen in labs across the UK and Ireland. Support services, trustworthy breast cancer information and specialist nurses are here. Ready to support you, whenever you need it. Dedicated campaigners are here. Fighting for the best possible treatment, services and care, for anyone affected by breast cancer.

Why? Because we believe that by 2050, everyone diagnosed with breast cancer will live – and be supported to live well. But to create that future, we need to act now.

Overview of the directorate

The fundraising, communications, and engagement directorate at Breast Cancer Now is responsible for communicating, engaging, and fundraising to our key audiences across a range of channels; from people living with or beyond breast cancer and their loved ones, to supporters, corporate partners, policy makers and healthcare professionals. We create and deliver high-quality, engaging information and communications about breast cancer, the impact our work has and ways to engage with Breast Cancer Now. We're led by the voices of people affected by breast cancer and involve them and champion their views and needs across a range of communications and platforms.

We're working hard to build our brand to build awareness, trust, loyalty, passion, and affinity with people affected by breast cancer and to be here for everyone who needs us.

We're responsible for delivering c£40 million gross income annually through our fundraising. We fundraise through a broad portfolio of fundraising products, partnerships, and relationships, all with the aim of delivering sustainable income and valued relationships for supporters and for Breast Cancer Now for the long term. We work collaboratively across the charity to develop fundraising which shows the impact our supporters have and the change we want to see in breast cancer.

All our work, and our focus is to be here for anyone affected by breast cancer, with support for today and hope for the future.

Our directorate includes teams across:

- brand, marketing, and communications
- digital
- press, PR and celebrity
- individual engagement and supporter operations (incl. supporter experience)
- community and events
- corporate partnerships
- philanthropy and special events

Job purpose

The community fundraising team is responsible for building exceptional relationships through attracting, engaging and retaining a range of community audiences including individuals, groups, clubs & societies, and local businesses, to drive income. Community fundraising has recently been unified into a single team that is now responsible for the full supporter journey, from mass market 'DIY fundraising' to high value relationships with an overall income target of £4.5m. Specifically, the role of the community fundraising executive is:

- To provide brilliant relationship management and supporter care to new and existing supporters, inspiring them to raise as much as possible and continue engaging with the charity.
- To help deliver the community fundraising program day-to-day. This includes acting as a first point of contact for supporters and administrative duties.

Reporting into one of the community fundraisers for London, south and Wales, you'll play a key role in stewarding our incredible supporters across the region. You'll also work closely with the other community fundraising executives in the team.

Key tasks and duties

Relationship management & stewardship

- To proactively build relationships and steward supporters undertaking a variety of fundraising activities from golf days and balls to bake sales and walks.
- To provide personalised, one to one stewardship and take supporters on a great supporter journey. This will help to increase the number who fundraise, the amount they raise and the proportion who go on to support again.
- To support the community fundraiser with the management of high value and long-term supporters, to help maximise the amount they raise.

- To manage the fulfilment of fundraising materials, working alongside the operations team to make sure there are sufficient stock levels.
- To thank supporters in a timely and personalised way and offer 'surprise and delight' moments to increase their engagement with the charity.
- To be a Breast Cancer Now ambassador at supporter events across your region.

Supporter care & response handling

- To act as the first point of contact in the team for general supporter enquiries, monitoring and managing the inbox and phone lines, as well as new online fundraising pages.
- To provide supporter care and additional stewardship for supporters on the automated supporter journey, both over the phone and email.
- To triage new supporters onto the most appropriate journey and relationship manager, depending on criteria such as complexity and location.

Processes & delivery

- To manage day to day processes, such as the coding of new fundraising pages.
- To make sure that supporter records are accurately maintained on the database.
- To work with the other community fundraising executives and community fundraisers, to ensure that processes are being followed, are optimised and fit for purpose.
- To capture supporter stories to be used in marketing and stewardship materials.
- To play an active role in the successful delivery of community fundraising plans. This may include a mix of supporting on projects and leading your own.
- Oversee and supervise the work of office volunteers and temporary staff when needed.

Finance & reporting

- To provide reports on performance against targets, sourcing information from the database and dashboards.
- To process invoices for the team, including raising POs, chasing outstanding invoices and reconciliation.
- To work with finance, supporter care and other internal teams to ensure income is coded accurately so gifts can be acknowledged and thanked in a timely manner.

Other

- A willingness and ability to travel across the UK, and work outside of usual hours.
- To adhere to all Breast Cancer Now policies and ensure all fundraising activity is carried out in adherence to charity law and regulation.
- Any other duties within the scope and remit of the role, as agreed with your manager.
